SALVI CONCERT MARCH 22

WARTBURG TRUMPET

MALE CHORUS PREPARED

VOLUME 2 | WAVERLY, IOWA, MONDAY, MARCH 15, 1937 | NUMBER 11

ALBERTO SALVI, NOTED HARPIST, COMES TO W. C.

Instrumental Quartet Also to Appear to Assure Balance.

Alberto Salvi, known as the world's greatest harpist, will appear in the Wartburg auditorium on the evening of March 22, with his notable instrumental quartet.

Salvi is still a young man in the early twenties, but his performances have will undoubtedly be of interest to everyone who likes music or plans to hear his concert.

Alberto Salvi was born in Venice. His father was a celebrated Italian harp maker. When the children were not playing or doing any one of the things young boys have to do, Alberto had a way in his father's shop and created lovely sounds from the huge instruments.

At the age of thirteen he went his first public performance at the Scholarship of the Naples Royal Conservatory, in a harp-playing Competition.

Graduated in Five Years.

After five years of study at the conservatory he graduated at the regular eight-year course. Following his graduation he made many appearances in his native country, but since there were no large cities in Italy and since the people could not afford to pay for good music, managers were scarce. Family connections drew him to China where for years he was employed in a theater or orchestra. Soon his fame had spread and he was engaged by the management to be so welcomed that he was requested to play a solo every evening.

One month after Mr. Salvi had played before the king he was preached by a representative of a New York concert management who realized that he had sighted a genius and was in search of just such a man for a concert tour. Since then Alberto Salvi has truly been a triumphal journey from one city to another.

Facts Concerning the Harp

The harp is an instrument that demands the greatest dexterity in order to produce even the most ordinary effects. And to have produced what we have been producing, Mr. Salvi has had to do something to give such unusual results which are possible as skillfully as he fingers the harp gives full-flavored melodies as a measure a few of the difficulties.

MIXED CHOIR TO HAVE NEW GOWNS

Local Women's Society Will Purchase and Make Robes for Women in Chorus.

Owing to a decision of St. Paul's Women's Society the women in the Mixed Chorus at Wartburg will appear in new vestments the year 1937. At one of the local congregations it was decided that money be offered to purchase material and make the new garments, about thirty-four in number. The new robes will be of the two piece type a black gown with white yoke. Mrs. H. C. Preus, president of the society, and Mrs. E. J. Braulick are in charge of arrangements for making the gowns.

The Chorus also received other equipment within the past year. The school has purchased four new music stands donated from the Paysen Manufacturing Company of Hebron, Nebr., according to Mr. Paysen, designer of the stands, was the invention of the instructor at Hebron College and Academy, Hebron, Nebr.

Heist Conducts Choir for Chapel Service

Wartburg's Mixed Chorus presented a concert during convocation, Wednesday, March 10.

The following numbers were sung:

Motet—Bach.

Hallelujah Chorus — Lewandowski.

Praise to the Lord—Dr. Christ-mann.

Lorraine Eckstein played a violin solo, "Meditation" by Thaïs-et. Erna Plotter furnishing piano accompaniment.

Normal Teachers Seek Employment Through Bureau

The Teachers Employment Bureau of Wartburg college is cooperating with Mr. R. E. Ives of the superintendents in an attempt to place all of the normal graduates.

Twenty-two students are included according to Professor M. Wiedenbeck and Professor H. Kuckuck, heads of the work of the bureau. Some of the students have had experience with high school teaching, while others have had elementary teachers and seven are one-year normal students.

Mr. Ives interviewed each student to obtain the information desired. Credentials consisting of personal data, general data, and recommendations of each applicant have been compiled, and distributed. It is expected and hoped that every teacher will be placed by the beginning of the 1937-38 term of school, if not every teacher was placed.

THAT MINSTREL SHOW IS COMING

Darkies to Present a Real Harlem Entertainment On April 15.

While in Harlem the other week I heard several darkies discussing the latest show coming to town. I was interested that I forgot to ask them the name of the show. So I said:

"Are you all going?"

"No suh! I'se goin'."

"Have you all know what I'se talkin' about?"

"I calculate that ain't nothin' I don't know 'bout dem all dat Minstrel Show."

"Well, it has been provision'ed in dem terms, ain't we? Reckon I'll have to be back early enough to be down the April 15. It's pretty dern even they goes to Wartburg college."

I expect it is but did you all hear Reliff dat star big business man? Why he's so rich dat he might have it at da Waverly Hotel Wednesday night. I reckon it's quite so fine.

Well, you all think about dat test what's done his picked for. I'se goin' to be back early.

Dat Helen Wettering can sing a whole lot. She's a real artist. An nother thing dat Soper man can blow. What happy about special numbers by outside talent. Calculate he am worker by de get dat ready immedgly. Will de outside of de make de effort? Dat we who' ruff! have a big show dis time.

Since the cast has made up their mind in good earnest there is no reason for not to be a good show. Wednesday night they had a mighty fine rehearsal. The prospects are favorable. The program will soon be announced. There are some new features.

Dr. Wendell Kramer of the college chemistry department is in charge of the production. Miss Ruth Preston is the director. Mrs. Ida Schaefer is the accompanist. Mrs. Preston reports that every seat in the auditorium will be sold by the beginning of the show. Better get your seat now.

Officers Chosen at Meeting; Fritz to Be Sponsor.

About thirty-five students assembled in organize the local chapter of the Lutheran Student Association of America, Sunday evening, March 14, at 6 o'clock in the Little Room of the Student Union building.

Lucille Leschensky, alumni secretary of the Lutheran Student Association, was elected president of the meeting.

Following the election of officers the attitudes toward Lutheranism, the local organizations and the aim of the association.

Rev. Leschensky states: Topics relevant to this aim will be presented at each meeting by prominent members of the group.

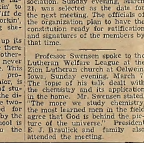
Leschensky Elected.

In the election of officers Miss Leschensky was elected president; Wilhelmine Langhoff, vice president and chairman of the program committee, and Helen Wettering, secretary. A committee is being formed to draft up by-laws.

Rev. Fritz, Wartburg pastor, has accepted the office of faculty sponsor. They met for the purpose of organizing a local chapter of the Lutheran Student Association. Sunday evening, March 21, was selected as the date of the next meeting. The officials of the organization plan to have the constitution ready for satisfaction and acceptance of the members by that time.

Professor Swenson spoke to the Wartburg Walther League of the Zion Lutheran church at Oelwein last Sunday evening on the subject, "The Spirit of Missions." He explained the purpose of the Walther League and its activities. He gave some of the more important chemistry. The most important was to have the agree that God is behind the policies of the universe. Professor E. J. Braulick and family also attended the evening.

SALVI CONCERT GROUP



These famous musicians will appear at the Wartburg college auditorium, March 22, to give a full evening program.

The players are: Caroline Sulfrian, flute; Ann Hawthorne, violin; Alexa Robert viola; Gelfredo Mainet, violoncello; Alberto Salvi, harp.

Reserve seats may be obtained by writing or making personal calls to the main office at the college.

MALE CHORUS TO LEAVE MARCH 27 ON 10 DAY TOUR

Twenty-six Students To Visit Thirteen Congregations.

The Wartburg male chorus, one of the most outstanding musical organizations of the middle west will make its annual tour during Easter vacation, through northern and southern Minnesota. This group of twenty-six men have enjoyed diligently since last fall and will present an inspiring and interesting program, composed exclusively of sacred numbers, under the direction of Professor Kramer.

The chorus is under the direction of Prof. Ernest G. Heist, head of the music department at Wartburg college. He has achieved success in a number of sacred anthems for church choirs, and his male chorus has been heard in a number of radio broadcasts and has had unbroken appreciation wherever it has appeared in concert numbers, and also to the several churches who received consent and reflection from them.

During their tour of approximately ten days the male chorus will be boarded by the churches of which it sings, and it has had been scattered so that the men will stay in different homes each day at luncheon which the chorus will visit.

OUR SINCERE SYMPATHY

The Trumpet extends the since sympathy of the Wartburg college student body and faculty to Alfred and Paul Engelbrecht whose younger brother, Edgar Engelbrecht, was called away a short time ago.

The Trumpet also extends condolences to Eleanor Gross whose grandmother died recently, and Mr. and Mrs. Brehmer's mother because of the death of Mrs. Brehmer's mother.

OUR CHORUS TOURS

Music, rhyme and rhythm seem to be as old as the human race. From the primitive savage with his metrical chants and sacred dances, to the modern age of opera and orchestra, music has served as a means of self expression for man. He sang when he was happy. He sang when he was sad and dejected. For all moods and all circumstances he found a form of music as a satisfactory means of expression.

Good Will Tours.

Within a few weeks the mixed and male choruses will again go on the annual spring tours. These tours are sponsored for the express purpose of forming a closer bond of fellowship between the members of the choruses and Wartburg college. Let us look upon them as "Good Will" tours to our Christian friends. They will be our hosts and as such are glad and willing to extend a degree of hospitality that they can afford. Let us therefore be appreciative, Christian guests.

Praises Be To God.

So often it seems that today we look upon music, merely as a means of entertainment. We enjoy the beauty and harmony of music. Now what music is there that has a greater right to beauty than the hymns of praise to God? But let us not become victims of the popular attitude and seek only to satisfy the ears of our audience, but to touch the hearts and minds of our audience, and since music and harmony seems to be most effective, we have chosen by praise and exalt God through song, and to minister through sacred song. He who tells of the majesty and love of God is a minister, therefore choristers, as we go on our choir robes let us remember that we are not entertainers but the servants of God for the glorification of his kingdom.

We Are Ambassadors.

Should that fact alone not be sufficient for us to keep in mind to be ministers of God not only in word but also in deeds? If we always remember that we are ambassadors of "Good Will" to our fellow Christians, then we cannot do otherwise but to show a Christian spirit at all times. The attitude of one chorus member may destroy the good fellowship of all the others.

Shall we therefore not cooperate and make another successful chorus tour, and thereby strengthen the bond of Christian understanding between God on the one hand and us and our patrons on the other hand?

—E. H.

DO WE HAVE IT . . .

Now that this year's basketball season has come to a close, let us meditate a little and consider as to what extent sportsmanship (the quality that should be the pride of every school) has prevailed in the games that Wartburg has played.

Are we able to pat ourselves on the back for having shown a high standard of sportsmanship in the games played as one college did? The following words are taken from an issue recently (not the last) of a college paper published by

"We, as a student body, have gained the none too enviable reputation of would be more exact to say, we become rather notorious for being 'poor sports.' Upon the other inquiry among those who call us poor sports, we find them to be the athletic rivals strangers we have attended our games. And their reason is based on our obnoxious habit of booing at either the least or else no provocation whatsoever."

Effects Players and Referees.

Such words do not strike the ear so pleasantly, neither do the offensive hootings strike the ear of those in the game. This includes the players as well as the referees.

Now listen to what our neighboring college has to say about sportsmanship as it feels the necessity of it among its own students.

"Sportsmanship is the spirit of fair play and the ability as well as the inclination to participate cheerfully accept damaging defeats and doubtful decisions. Since we have never been out on that floor trying to referee a game, we cannot understand how humanly impossible it is to see everything that happens. Therefore, how can we, claiming to be good sports, still sit in our own gym booing at the top of our collective voices — we who have, as a school, hired or appointed our own referees and agreed (theoretically) to abide by their decisions! We must do one of two things: either refrain from booing, or else refrain from calling or even as much as thinking ourselves good sports."

Our Part of the Game.

Let us retain these words for they hold good in all sports. The baseball season is still before us. We can all train by striving to develop a higher quality of sportsmanship. If we do this we will truly be able to say that we always enter our contests with the spirit of true Knighthood.

THE Hash Bowl

After the freshmen issue the editors of the Hashbowl decided to publish a volume in honor of the first which is real column is now in the hands of the printer and will be on sale in a few days. No wonder if we have been getting up nights. Langreck is the weasel, he turned his snake the other night and he would be afraid to play basketball.

Ye editor had his typewriters taken for the Annual. We thought that expression would get over. We sang "Busy Me Out on the Campus" and "Busy Me Out" about pictures. The Trumpet staff is busy writing stories on their jobs. Hank's taken to be putting out a Wartburg Advisor. Conversations are surely bent on developing. Ye ole saw: "Hamburger is to Dave Herman the 'Gospel truth' Dave is for it." Wonder what Dave thinks of "Hamburger Stew." "Algerine" fell after taking a game from the Cubs. Ye editor is set a lot of nothing. "You Can't Escape from Me" probably means Roppmeyer is nothing but a "nothin'." The new dance craze sends the spring fever among the students. The profs will be around some until June. We wonder if Ye Pie at Pfeifle is lemon or not. Leckenby is the best balloon inflater-upper on the campus. Shorts certainly don't become Ina Koethe's slogan of "On the contrary" Ye editor is going to "PLUNGE" after Ann Arbor's April Wisconsin romance we nominate Gail and Gerhardt Reiff. We understand Ina's nickname is "Sunshine." You should see Ye editor set. Sandy ought to be able to tell us about the skin you love to touch. Say how are you basketball fans. Say it's time for the Hash to go home. Do you like it? You can skip here if sight! Art Gish, I'll have to keep your name up first. We can scrape the bottom of the barrel for other contributions from the faculty which we will dedicate to Army Berthon, Herbert Hedtke, and Bob Orth.

Rosalma Neubauer

Miss Rosalma Neubauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Neubauer, is one of the group of students who graduate in January from their home town.

Rosie, as she is known on the campus, received her high school education at Colwell, and from there decided that she needed a change of atmosphere so she took a spring course and attended the Cook Institute of Chicago for a time. Rosalma finds this change very satisfactory as she has a preference for music in the field of music.

But then Rosie does not spend all of her time on Calculus. She is assistant editor of the annual, reporter for the Trumpet, secretary of the Y-W, president of Wartburg Hall, a member of the mixed chorus, and plays in a member of the Science club.

Then for her hobby Rosie is a "Snapshots" (of yourself or others) fiend. College life is not all surmises so Rosie also has her amusements, such as stuffed animals, roommates, and especially snow ball fights.

Now when Rosie talks, she uses good English, of course, but there is once expression which seems to predominate. That is "Oh, you know, Bess and Ne" and even does Rosie Looking back upon her days at Wartburg she says, I don't know what to say."

Arthur Nickel

Mr. Arthur Nickel, a veteran mathematician to students as Nick or Art, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nickel of Almeria, Wis.

He was a student at St. Paul Luther academy and later attended Paul-Luther College for two years. He continued his pre-theological course at Wartburg in his junior year. For his major he has chosen English. He intends to enter the seminary next fall.

Art is well known for his extra-curricular activities, having been the football captain in '36, and also active in basketball and track. He is the president of the Physical Science society, and a member of the "We" club and Science club.

Art has the interesting hobby of collecting stamps and he definitely complains of his special aversion, which he says is, "People who make too much noise late at night in dormitories or elsewhere." Art's plan for the future is not definite as yet but later on he may go on to graduate work.

LESCHENSKY IS CHAPEL SPEAKER

Ecklor, Chellevold, Hiltner and Braulick Address Students.

In a short address, Eugene Leschensky, district secretary of the Lutheran Student Association of the East, Friday chapel established the function of this organization, Thursday, Feb. 25.

Soliciting support in forming a chapter at Wartburg, Mr. Leschensky won enthusiastic approval. Sunday evening, March 7, was set aside for the formation of the local chapter.

Hiltner Mar. 1.

Dr. J. Hiltner addressed the students Monday, March 1, using as his text Luke 23:33, "And when they crucified Him."

As well as those directly responsible for Jesus' death, Dr. Hiltner included everyone today.

Dr. Hiltner concluded by saying, "Business men would crucify Him just as readily today, if he insisted them as He did by cleansing the temple of their business."

Chellevold Mar. 2.

"There is yet a world to conquer," said John O. Chellevold Wartburg students Tuesday, March 2.

Enumerating many problems such as the baffling economic peal, efficiency of machines, etc., professor Chellevold proved very clearly that there is much improvement yet to make.

Braulick Mar. 8

Basing his talk entitled "Gymnopedes Choralmusic" on Numbers 15, Prof. Walter Braulick, Monday, March 8 enlarged upon music's holy function—that of respect and exertion.

"We are not confident enough to do our best work, to learn our full respect or to pray. Let us lend ourselves by faith, and passive examination to the Lord."

Ecklor Mar. 3

"We can prove a little talks deepen our moral and spiritual lives on three levels," Rev. Wm. O. Ecklor, Methodist pastor of Waverly, Monday, March 3 told Wartburg students, Wednesday, March 3.

"We can develop our personalities by study and fellowship of nature by reading great books written by greater men than ourselves, and thirdly, by the study of the lives of great men like Luther, Wesley, Lew Wallace and especially Jesus Christ, the embodiment of all good."

Hiltner Mar. 8

A continuing series on "Shorthand Simplified" Dr. J. Hiltner Monday explained the meaning of Gothic numerals, vowels and Greek letters.

He contrasted the numerals one, three seven, and twelve; the colors, black, white, green, black, and red; and illustrated familiar characters to show how the church expresses its great principles in symbols.

ORGANIZATIONS

Deutscher Verein.

Members of the Deutscher Verein met at the home of Professor J. Costello after they attended the German Lecture series, Wednesday evening, March 10.

Plans for conducting a student convention program were discussed and it was decided to use the music of Germany as the theme of their presentation. A committee, consisting of Edward Wagner, Theodore Boyens, and Helen Drenckhow are in charge of arrangements for the convention.

Following the meeting, Mrs. J. Costello served German pastries and coffee to the members present.

Pre-The.

Marie Ackermann, senior Pre-The, continued the discussion of "Sermon Topics" at a meeting held in the Atlantic Monday at the last meeting of the Pre-the society on Tuesday, March 2. About twenty members attended the discussion held in Grossmann hall.

The ordering of small lapel crosses and necessary concerning a picture in the Fortress completed the short business of the evening. Only members who have already signed for a certificate in the organization may appear in the picture in the Fortress. Art Nickel, president, conducted the meeting.

Round Table

Miss Helen Wright gave a talk on art, illustrating her own drawings, when Round Table met which met in Wartburg hall, March 8.

The drawings which were shown by the group represented parts of the United States which Miss Wright has visited.

During the business meeting, the club decided to have a picture in the Fortress. Lunch was served later.

SEMINARY NOTES

Rev. H. F. Schuh of Columbus, Ohio, was on the campus this past week and delivered several lectures to the student body on stewardship and finance.

A book auction was held Thursday by the Wartburg book store. A portion of the proceeds of this sale is being used to bring Dr. W. Arndt of Luther college to this the near future to address the seminary society.

Preparations are on for the "Wartburg Vespers" radio program have been received regarding copies of posters and leaflets, advertising the program were recently sent out by the student body committee.

Prof. S. Schmeun delivered a lecture on "Psychiatry and Seelsorge" to the Forum society Monday evening, March 1. A round table discussion on the topic followed.

Plans are being made by the mission society to begin active work on its projects soon. These projects are raising hospitals, aiding the local ministers with their pastoral calls, conducting services at various city institutions, and canvassing for Lutheran prospects.

The executive board of the Seminary met here Tuesday evening.

August Engelbrecht went to his home in Mendota, Ill., last week to attend the funeral of his younger brother, Edgar.

Members of the senior class are conducting services at the Dubuque city mission every Monday evening.

Two members of the graduating class have accepted pastoral calls. Leon Zommick has accepted a call to Merrill, Iowa. Carl Becker will become the assistant pastor of St. John's church at Madison, Wis., in June.

A basketball team, composed of Wartburg seminary students, played the seminary team of Dubuque seminary Saturday night, Feb. 20, in a curtain raiser game to the Wartburg-Dubuque university game.

Several seminary students went to Rockford, Ill., on Sunday evening, Feb. 14, to hear a concert given by the Capital University choir.

SPORTS NIGHT ON MARCH 18 IS HUGE SUCCESS

Dreadnaughts, J r s. Other-States Win in Contests.

The first all-college sports night was a huge success as attested by the great revenue shown in the contests that night, and the great interest that has been soaked up between all state volleyball fans, which we now are swinging into a tournament.

Dreadnaughts Win

The story of the finish in the play-off returnable which ended 18-13 in favor of the Dreadnaughts over the Destroyers is found elsewhere on this page.

All-Stars Crush Foes

The second spectacle of the evening entertainment found the Other States All-Star volleyball team pitted against what seemed to a powerful aggregation from this town-folks of Iowa. In the first game, in the two out of three series, the Farmer's superior team coordination as they caught the All-Stars unaware and took over the match 15-3. However the second game proved to be a different matter as Sweetorr' Call uncovered some lofty defense to lead the out-of-state men into a reverse of the first game score. The rest continued in the fifth game, continued to be close as the game continued to pit-back and forth and scored the first four points, with each team holding for time out. The Iowans returned to their first-game form and scored 5points to the All-Stars 4 to make it 19-9. A time out temporarily held shot his wad, and the out-of-staters, Jack Sweetorr and Brehmer, captured the next 3 markers.

Jrs. Beat Sophs.

The finish of the first tournament found the Juniors pitted against the Sophomores for the year's champion Freshman, in the final copy of the year's play.

Herbert Poup, the Preston flash, opened the scoring for the Sophs with a beautiful long shot, but Kiekenapp and Rickenbrode counted for the Middlemen to make it 4-2. A timely time out by Nielsen and another shot by Poup ended the first quarter with the Juniors undecided. The Juniors retallied with the second quarter with a vicious onslaught behind Kiekenapp, Rickenbrode and Nielsen to score 10 points, which failed to be matched by the end the first half 16-8.

The Juniors continued their drive throughout the third period to make it 32-14, but in the final quarter the Sophs staged a furious rally, but it fell short by three points to make it 39-33 at the whistle blew.

Trophies

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of trophies by Coach Hertel during the half period in the last game. To Ray Carlstensen, captain of the Dreadnaughts—who defeated the Jrs. last night, was presented a large, beautiful, non-shrinkable, ever-lasting, non-fillable pure tin, loving cup, which may be allowed as the trophy case. Arnold Kuester, coach of the All-Stars was awarded a somewhat round volleyball, in recognition of their many victory, while the Juniors' name will be engraved on the silver cup trophy.

ASK ACK

By Scribe Ackermann

The basketball season is over! Soon the baseball and track men will be going at it hot and heavy, but first we must look back over a few basketball men.

Basket Wesley Schelling will be the only Senior who will be lost through graduation. Wesley played a good game at ball while he was in there after Bricklemyer, Jr. Neal has been commended for the fine spirit which he put forth at all times.

The rest of the team should be held for the following season, also with the experience of this year, Coach Hertel should be allowed to be able to expect a good season next year.

Ed. Fardon

Ed. Fardon, Sport of the 1936-37 edition of the Knights, should also be given a banquet for his consistent game. Although only 5-6 centers Ed. fought hard every bath in conference scoring with 45 points.

Sports Nite

This column would to express appreciation shown by all the spectators who attended the session on the first Trumpet Sports Nite. It was a success in every way, and everyone as they came out and made it a real evening should get a long way in the future. Of course the Dreadnaughts and their clever coach nice trophies as they should, at after all, the game is what counts.

VOLLEYBALL

The intense spirit which has been whipped up between the states in volleyball by Wisconsin's championship has caused Hertel to manifest itself in a tournament. Eight teams and eight games are listed below:

Wisconsin Maidels—Riff.
Wisconsin Wolves—Leschensky.
Minnesota Gophers—Sweetorr.
Illinois Infantry—Metzger.
Kansas Jayhawkers—Gerdes.
Iowa Indians—Pass.
Dakota Blizzards—Kuchderer.
Nebraska Nites—Ellersieper.
Varsity Knights—Schelling.

Riff says that the rest of the dope will be available.

RINKDINKS

That exciting match between the Senior Rinkdinks was the result of a heavyweight battle. Sophomores in the class tournament.

GLOBE TROTTERS

Just a few cut shots from the Globe Trotter game . . . Forward Ed Fardon smoked Bricklemyer's best for a place to rest the press. Basketball has relocalized some nice shots.

Lorenz is still maintaining that the negroes are short-sighted. Basketball has relocalized some nice shots.

Becker came through with a fast one by contending that the best play by Trotters by busting Bricklemyer on the schnozzle.

Opperman also discovered that Bricklemyer be used for something else beside a bat-rack.

Kuester's most prominent of a time figuring out what a darkie is. Answer: A dark-ie is a fog-around-the nose (not Nosburn) with a handle.

Heist found his football came in handy as he added a hundred yard run by Rudner.

BREVITIES

Have been wondering just what is to call the College team . . . How about Otters? . . . You know, Otter Tail . . . Otter state? . . . Coach lost about ten years of his life waiting for all the negroes to come . . . Umpire Riffenburgher had a reminiscence of his childhood days . . . Phyllis Poup now going in for golf.

OPINIONS SEEM TO DIFFER

Dreadnaughts vs. Destroyers

By Herbert Poup

The Dreadnaughts, playing the game as the Globe-Trotters, defeated their darkie opponents in the first game against the Destroyers in the final round of the play-off volley ball tournament.

The opening minutes of the game found the Dreadnaughts getting around, content to leave the Destroyers with their ball, but with a short battle, while waiting for the Destroyers to get their wind, swooped, they captured the ball and scored the first game of the contest. The Destroyers came back strong in the second quarter, getting their wind, scored first on a free throw by Behrens, and Poup followed soon with a hit for two points. The Dreadnaughts were forced to rest upon their time for the first quarter, scoring a scoring no points they allowed no score on the part of the Destroyers for a 3-0 margin.

In the second period the Dreadnaughts continued their reeling game as Ray Carlstensen found the hoop for four points, and Ralph Rudner followed with a red target practice. Wagner, their opponents, scored once on a free throw and the Dreadnaughts again took a commanding lead of 12-1 at the end of the second period.

After the intermission the Destroyers came back to make a game of it, but the Dreadnaughts played the game through the entire 40 minutes and continued their slaughtering, and at the end of the game had a comfortable margin to send the third game to the Destroyers by a score of 25-7.

Augmenting her crew, Captain Carstensen, himself directed the Dreadnaughts to victory over the Destroyers in deep waters to the tune of 25-7. Carstensen's crew scored consistently from the opening gun for 6 points and 2 free throws for 8 points, and Rudner added a field goal to complete rout. Just to make it complete, Ray Carlstensen came through with another direct hit to the hoop, and the crew of the Destroyer slowly turning over on the deck. Ray Carlstensen, while the Dreadnaughts hoisted the flag of victory.

Wagner led all scoring with twelve points for the Destroyers while Carlstensen led the Dreadnaughts for five for the Dreadnaughts.

GLOBE TROTTERS BEAT KNIGHTS IN FINE GAME

Darkies Use Full Bag of Tricks To Win In Overtime.

In the first cage game of the year played in the Y gym the Globe Trotters turned back the Knights 42-40 in one of the best thrilling cage basketball seen on the home floor this season.

The Trotters, during the game used everything from a deceptive passing and dribbling attack to football, baseball and giraffe formations to make the game one rich on exhibition of good basketball, but when a visitor leaves the game with everyone from the Waverly players and officials to the scorekeepers bearing the brunt of those jokes.

Knights Grab Lead.

The Knights worked on early lead in the contest which they soon ran up to 8 points before allowing the darkies to score. However, the darkies soon went to work, and by keeping virtual possession of the ball at all times they soon piled up a 12 to 8 lead which they further increased after a few minutes to 20-11 near the end of the half.

With a sufficient lead, and with only a few minutes remaining until half time, the colored boys went into a stall game which was the first Waverly man on when he went to work. A corporation game of "pile-away" which netted the Trotters a total of 4 points before the gun sounded the half time. Half time found the score 20-11 in favor of the visitors.

Even Game

The start of the second half again found both teams battling it out in a thrilling manner, the Knights showing in the final period being 30-29. The Knights then started a drive behind Becker and Rudner and, with surrounded with the count at 36-36, after the darkies had taken time out to play football and baseball.

The final overtime period Burns counted twice, while Becker counted once to leave the final score 42-40 in favor of the Globe Trotters.

Burns and Hudson showed the Knights scoring by counting 24 and 12 points respectively for the darkies, while Carl Becker led those of the Knights with 15 counters.

The Wisconsin volleyball team by a unanimous vote announced the Iowans were declared the easy victors in two games by 15 to 9 and 15 to 12 over the home state aggregation.
